

Civic Engagement
with Jacinta Froud

Visit Jacinta Froud's website and challenge students to create a Curly Persnickety Moustache. With Moustache in hand, invite students to act out a visit to his book shop.

Visit the library and invite students to pick out the perfect book for a partner based on their hobbies and interests. Discuss why they choose that book?

Encourage students to write a book based on one of the prompts from The Perfect Book. It might be about an impolite pug, a narwhal or a wizard.

Invite students to discover their perfect book by exploring the Reading Cafe template.

Inspire students to achieve their reading goals with this bookmark template and whole class poster.

Visit Tadaa to see how The Perfect Book was made. Encourage students to illustrate their own storyboard to tell a story without words.

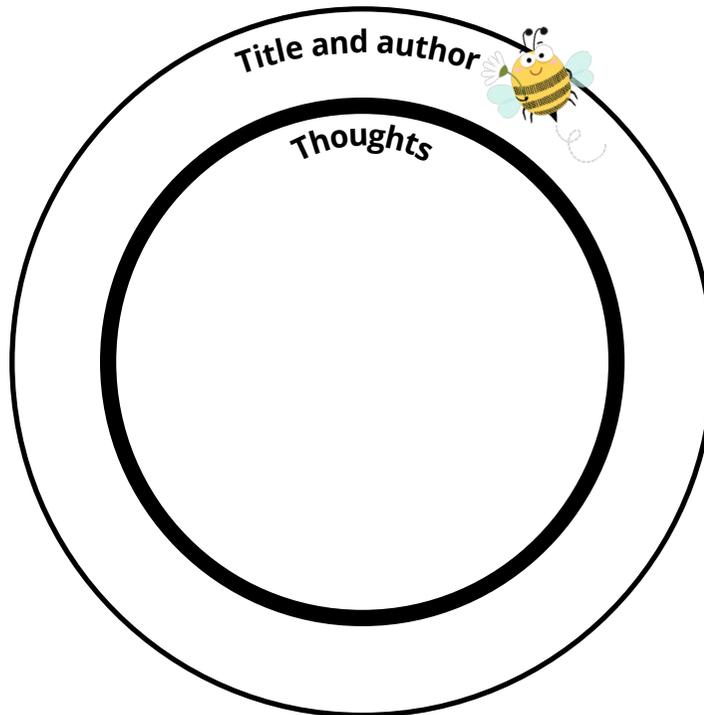

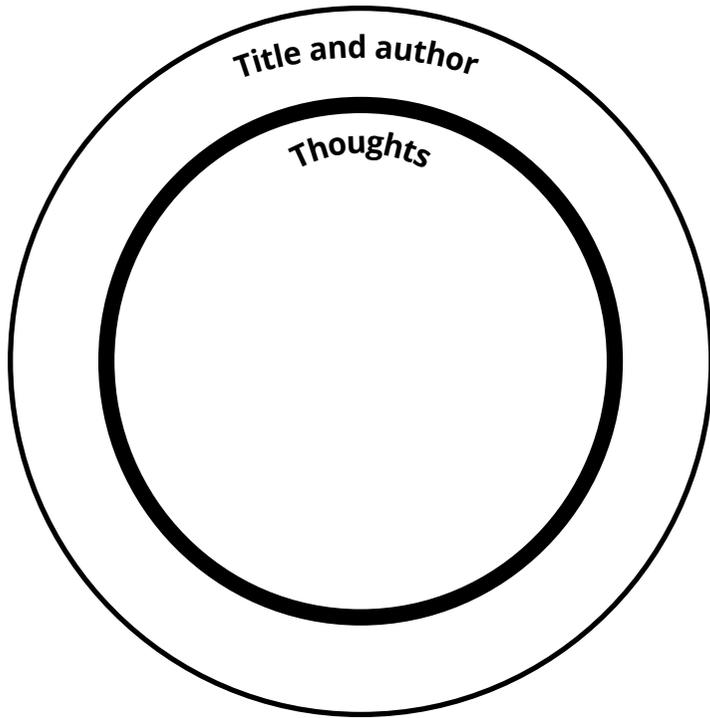

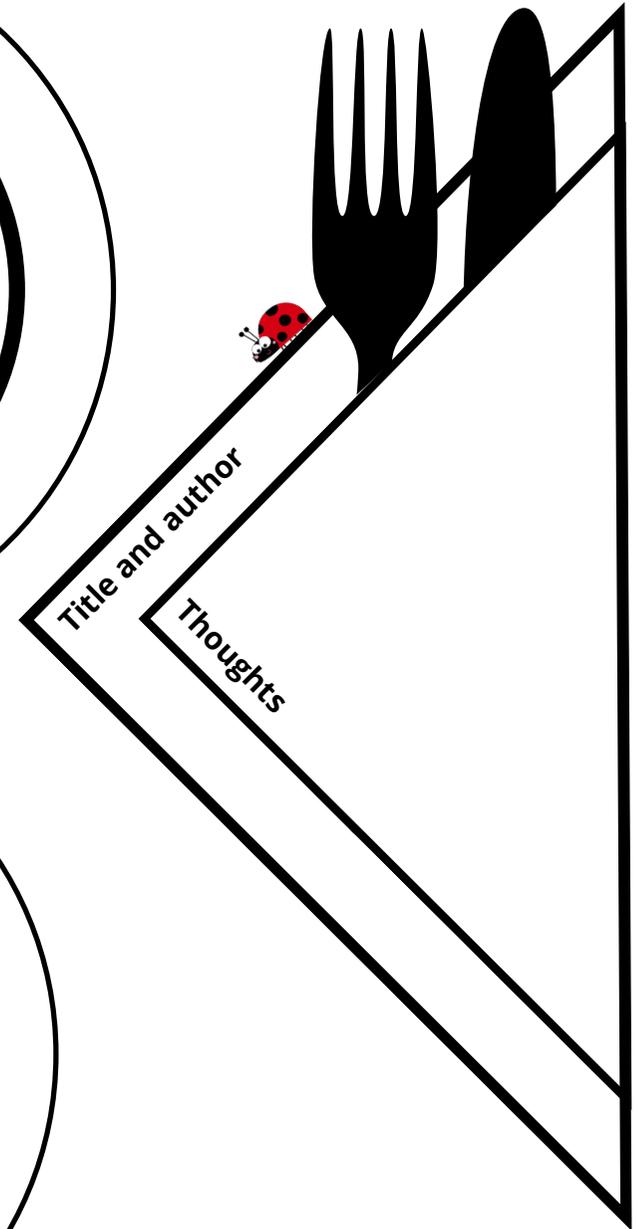

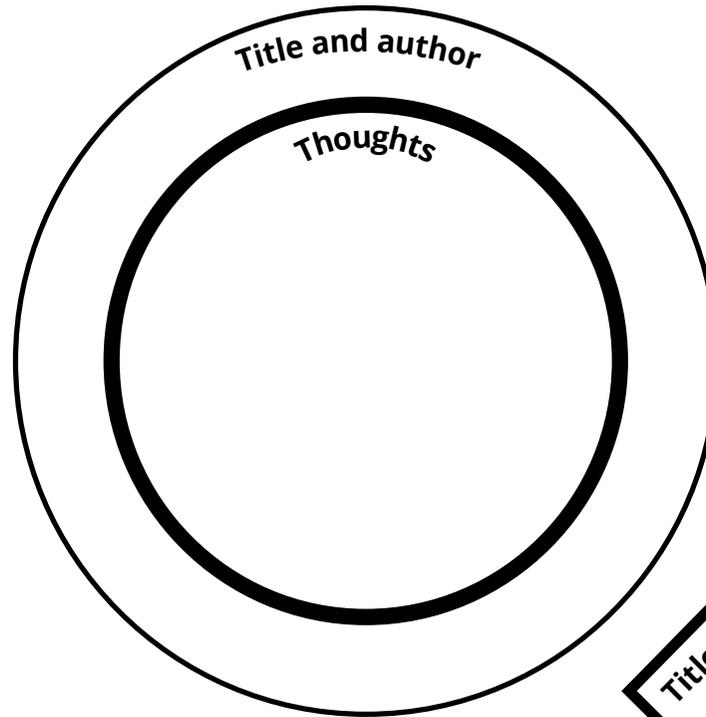

Create and decorate a Street Library for your school and wider community. Invite students to bring books to start the library collection.

Mr Persnickety made many suggestions to help Finn find the perfect book. Challenge students to write an article or create an advertisement to help persuade students to read their favourite book.

Theme/ Big Idea

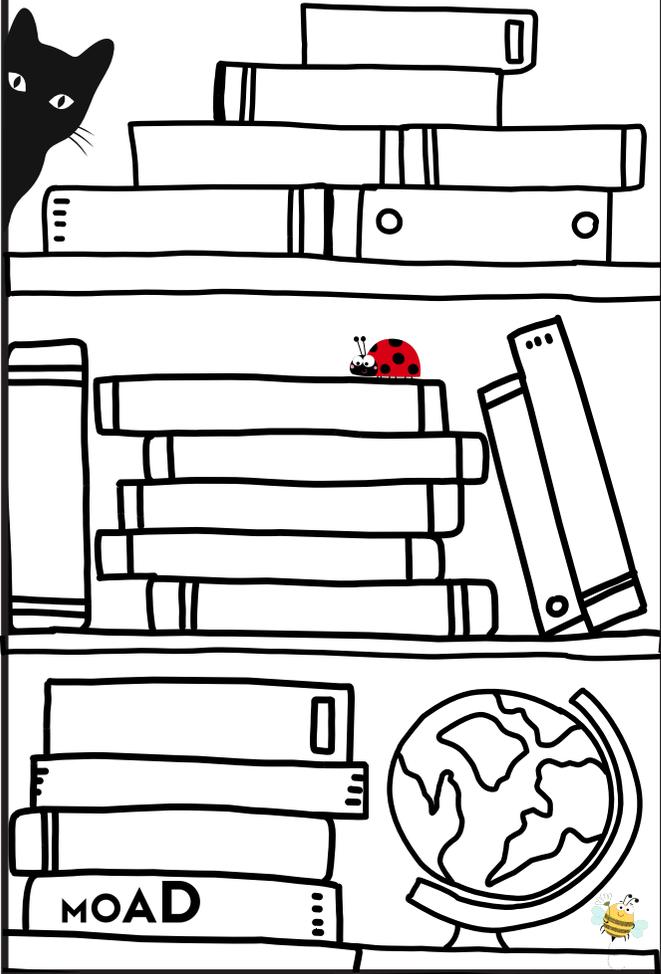

The reading cafe taste testing

Use this template to record your ideas, wonderings and reflections as you explore different books.

Reading Life
Reading Vibes
Reading Mind

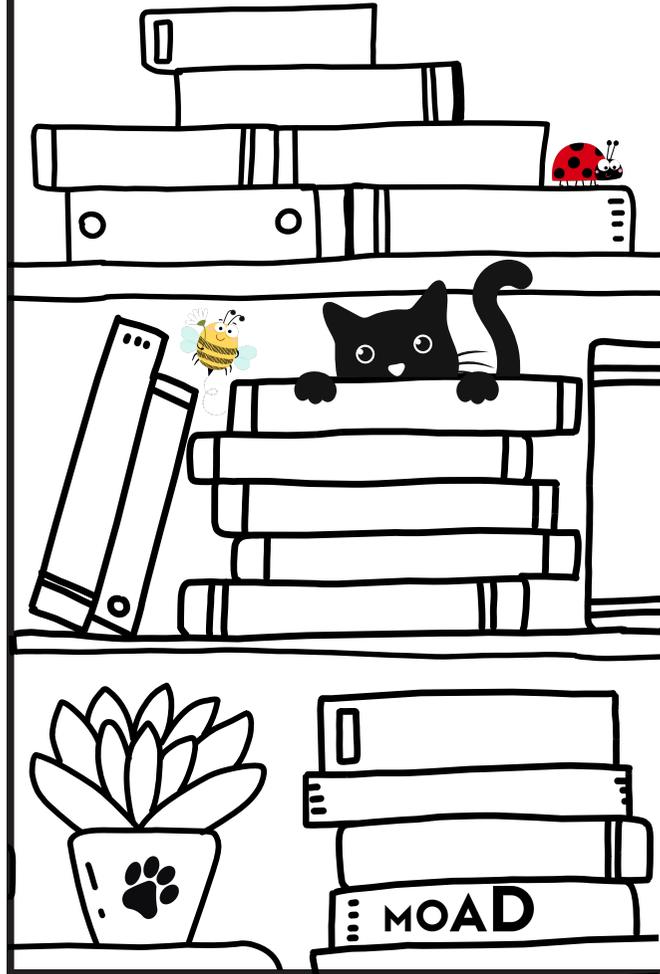

As you read, record your books
as a reminder of the adventures you took.

Reading Life
Reading Vibes
Reading Mind

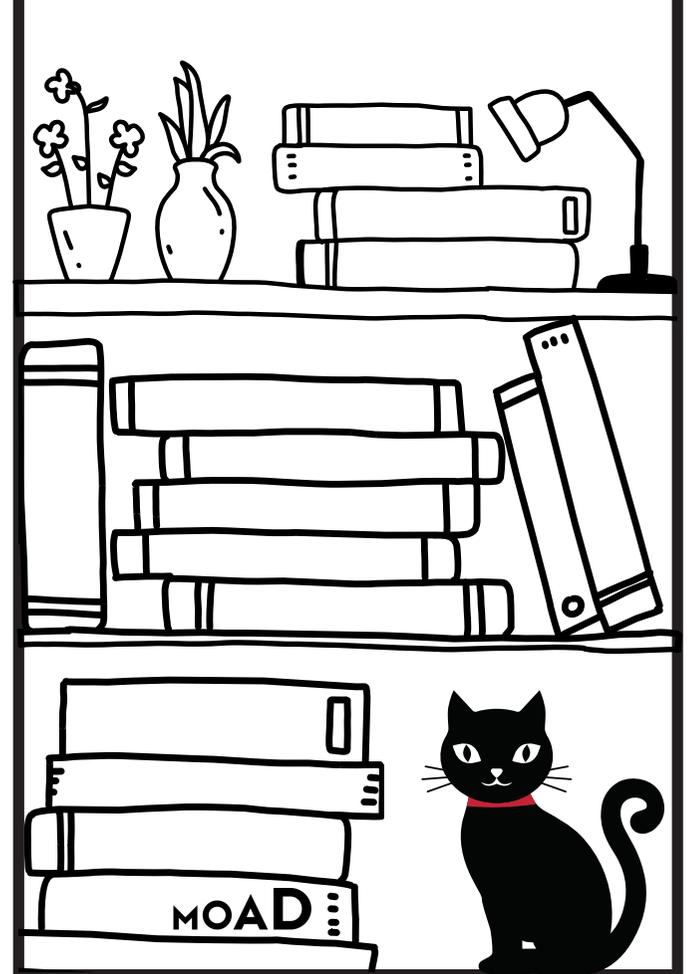

As you read, record your books
as a reminder of the adventures you took.

Reading Life
Reading Vibes
Reading Mind

As you read, record your books
as a reminder of the adventures you took.

Reading Life! Reading Vibes! Reading Minds!

As you read, record your books
as a reminder of the adventures you took.

